To whom it may concern,

I am seeking to be a productive asset within the web development field that has a challenging, energetic, and enjoyable work environment, where customer care is a top priority, and where I will be able to learn and grow within the field.

I am a dedicated, friendly, passionate individual, whom enjoys helping people. I have consistently proven the ability to produce positive results in all positions I have undertaken. Given the opportunity, my compassion and commitment would serve your company well in responding to your customers' needs and I am positive that I could make a significant contribution to this company.

I would appreciate an opportunity to discuss with you about how my skills can improve the services offered within AVYST. Please contact me at either one of the sources listed above. Thank you for your consideration of my qualifications.

Sincerely,

William Fritz
